The monetary excitement of the past two or three days sensibly subsided yesterday. Gold further declined 5 per et., to a point which is 17 per cent, below the highest rate of Monday.— The higher quotations from London for American securities are calculated to aid in depressing the gold premium.

GEORGETOWN, June 20 .- The canal trade is just now, lively. The daily arrivals of coal have been large for some time. Seventeen boats, with 2,600 tons coal, arrived yesterday. In the flour and grain market business is light. Demand for choice grades flour active, but no sales. Fair red wheat sold at $2.90 to $3.

LOCAL NEWS.

"Notes and Queries."-We find the fol lowing in the National Intelligencer of yester-bia.' In it he says that it would be beneficial to the citizens of Washington and Georgetown to do away with the Aqueduct Bridge, and calling on Congress to make a permanent bridge for travel out of the said Aqueduct Bridge. Now, I wish to know whether the people of Georgetown (including 'Columbia') wish all trade and travel to come into their city, or whether such large ships as come to Alexandria can get to Georgetown or not, and also whether they, or he ('Columbia,') wish to cut off travel | labor. from the citizens of Alexandria and vicinity with our Washington market by way of the Long Bridge. If Congress makes an appropriation for the Aqueduct Bridge, what are the people of Alexandria county to do, without Congress will give them the Long Bridge and let them rebuild it, or give them a charter for a new bridge altogether? Does "Columbia" propose to shut the people of Virginia off from all trade with the capital of the nation and with her sister State of Maryland? Be kind enough to give this a space in your columns, and oblige one who looks to the in tere t and welfare of all our neighboring cities. C. W. H."

THE WHARVES.-The greatest change that has taken place in the appearance of Alexandria, since the war, is observable in and about the wharves. The "river front" is far different from what it was when every warehouse was filled with goods, and every store and counting room open for the transaction of business, from the Fish Wharf to the Pioneer Mills .-Now, what a contrast! But we mention this, not to encourage despondency, but to state that here, in Alexandria, there is room, space, facilities, houses, depth of water, excellence of harbor, extent of wharves and docks, for an increased and profitable commerce, and that they all invite the attention of capitalists and business men. No outlay is here required to prepare for commerce and trade. Everything is ready. When the Alexandria Canal is opened, as we hope it will be very shortly, there should be no delay in reviving the commerce of our city. Indeed, there should be no waiting even for that. Why should not Alexandria be the shipping port for Washington? Why should we not have our direct imports and shipments?

THE AQUEDUCT .- The Georgetown people are becoming wrothy, about the speedy repening of the Alexandria Canal-judging from the suljoined item from that city. "We paid a visit this morning to the aqueduct, and eve- ty. At Germantown the assemblage, in conse-@ 00 00 rything we saw there plainly indicated the in- quence of this appointment was more numerous tention of those who claim it as theirs, to let than upon similar occasions prior to the war the water into it at no distant date. Carpen- and what we regret to add, a fight, originating ters and caulkers were plying their craft there at that village between two persons from oppoand patcking up the poor concern with all the site portions of the county, was participated in skill and efficacy wood, hemp, and tools could by their respective friends from the different lend them. Boats then are once more to swim through it, and man and beast may travel | freely indulged in, and we learn that several round the world to get to Georgetown and Washington, rather than pass by this way to either place. The interests of both cities are to be sacrificed to a rotten concern that has never yet paid the interest on its debts, and our citizens are to have high markets because a bankrupt company and its lessees think, in their blindness, to retrieve their desperate fortunes by an operation that never has paid and never will pay, until the toesin of the world's death shall ring through creation." SALAD. - As the properly compounding of salad is known only to a gifted few, we pro duce, for the benefit of our lady readers-

SIDNEY SMITH'S SALAD RECIPE. To make this condiment, your poet begs, The pounded yellow of two hard boiled eggs Two boiled potatoes, passed through kitchen

Smoothness and softness to the salad give. Let onion atoms lurk within the bowl, And half suspected, animates the whole. Of mordant mustard add a single spoon, Distrust the condiment that bites so soon; But deem it not, thou man of herbs, a fault, To add a double quantity of salt.

Four times the spoon, with oil from Lucca brown: And twice with vinegar procured from town: And lastly, o'er the flavored compound toss A magic soupcon of anchovy sauce.

Oh, green and glorious! Oh, herbaceeous treat! Twould tempt the dying anchorite to cat: Back to the world he'd turn his fleeting soul,

And plunge his fingers in the salad bowl! Serenely full, the epicure would say, 'Fate cannot harm me, I have dined to-day.'

RENTS.—One inducement for the prosecu tion of business in this place, is the cheap rate of rents for store houses and stores, when compared with those in other places. There has been a considerable reduction in rents for these kind of buildings within the last month or two. We have heard of one case where a store house that commanded $1200 per annum, a year or two ago, rented a day or two since for $400 .-This is an extreme case, but, nevertheless, the | Mayor, he was discharged. depreciation we speak of exists, and, as we have said, offers inducements to persons to live here and pursue business-their expenses being reduced in a corresponding degree.

Excursion.—The grand pic-nic and moon light excursion, of the Episcopal Methodist Church Sunday School to Glymont, comes off to-morrow. Two boats will leave this city for the scene of the festivities, one at eight o'clock in the morning, and the other at a quarter past six in the evening.

Dr. Chancellor.—We regret to announce that Dr. Charles W. Chancellor intends leaving this city, and, for the future, to make his home in Memphis, Tennessee. We hope fortune may attend him, and, if in this sphere, true merit is attended with its just reward, he will be eminently successful in his new field of

At a called meeting of the Alexandria Club last night, Dr. Chancellor, who has occupied the position, since its organization, resigned the office of President, in a short but happy and feeling address, eliciting the admiration of the members of the club, who immediately upon his withdrawal, passed, unanimously, the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the resignation of Doctor C. W. Chancellor, the Alexandria Club regrets to part with a most efficient presiding officer, and its members have thereby individually incurred a social and personal loss. 2d. That in separating from Dr. Chancellor, the Club express their sense of his high personal merits, and tender to him their best wishes for his future prosperity and happiness.

3d. That Dr. C. W. Chancellor be elected an honorary member of the Club, and entitled to all the privileges thereof. 4th. That the Secretary be directed to forward a copy of these resolutions to Dr. Chancellor.

PRIZE FIGHT. - A prize fight for a purse of $1,000 came off at eight o'clock, this morning at Gunston Point, near Dumfries, in Prince William county, Va., between Barney Aaron, of New York, and Sam Collyer, of Baltimore. The fight lasted two hours and five minutes, during which forty seven rounds were fought, and resulted in the declaration of the referree that Collyer was the winner. Both parties were "severely punished," and fought the last rounds blind. The two principals, and their attendants-who were so numerous as to require the transportation afforded by two boats-were carried to the scene of the "mill" by the Winnissimet and Mariner, which left Washington about one o'clock last night and returned about twelve o'clock to-day. The Washington Police were on the wharf when the boats re turned, but made no arrests.

DISTURBANCE.-Saturday last was the day appointed by the County Court of Fauquier, for the organization of the militia of that counsections. The use of pistols and knives was were seriously wounded.

STABBING .- Quite an excitement was creaed and a crowd collected, about half-past seven o'clock last evening, on Clay Hill, near the depot of the Loudoun & Hampshire Railroad, by the stabbing of a Mrs. McSherry by Mrs. Sher ridan. Both parties were residents of the lo cality, and the stabbing was induced by the abusive language and menaces of Mrs. Me-Sherry. The wound, which is in the back, was inflicted with a table knife.

The Washington Chronicle of this morning says that "The Great National Fair will be open to colored people" to-morrow, between the hours of 11 A. M., and 11 P. M. Is this not in conflict with the provisions of the "Civil Rights Bill." Ain't a white man as good as a
